L.3.5. Instructions for Completion of Resumes for Contractor

Personnel. A separate resume for each person involved in the off-site management of this contract and also each person involved in the on-site management, supervision, and performance of this contract, excepting

* those occupying the Maintenance Helper/Laborer/Janitor positions, shall be * provided. Each resume shall contain a notation of whether the person will serve primarily on or off-site. Where previous work experience involving employment by another company or agency is cited, references with this company or agency should be included. These references shall include the name, title, and phone number of the individual currently with the employer who has knowledge of the employees' duties and performance. In the area of experience, the resume shall be limited to experience that involves the type of work included in this solicitation or other experience that is considered by the offeror to be equivalent. Offerors should note that previous company experience (as an independent Contractor) in the performance of this or similar work should be presented in accordance with the paragraph entitled "Instructions for Describing Personnel Qualification Requirements," below, and not included in the individual resumes. All resumes shall be of the same format and prepared so that the position descriptions, pre-employment qualification requirements, and training plan required by the paragraph entitled "Instructions for Describing Personnel Qualification Requirements" can be applied by the proposal evaluators to judge the qualifications of the employees proposed. In the event that the offeror has not selected a particular employee at the time of proposal preparation, the information provided in accordance with the paragraph entitled "Instructions for Describing Personnel Qualification Requirements" will be used by the evaluation team as an indicator of the offeror's intentions concerning the affected position. However, either large-scale use of this approach or use in the management, supervisory, and high-skilled positions, in lieu of providing employee resume information, will not be looked upon favorably by the evaluation team. Also, in the event you propose to utilize a subcontractor or subcontractors, resumes should be submitted for all of their personnel who will be involved in the performance of work under this contract. Also, please include the subcontractor's company name on the resumes for such personnel that are separate from that of your own company.

L.3.6. Instructions for Describing Personnel Qualification Requirements.

For each position listed in the offeror's staffing plan, the offeror shall provide the following information:

- a. Entry level position description.
- b. The journeyman level position description, if different from the entry level description.
- c. A detailed description of the proposed pre-employment qualification requirements.

* d. A detailed training plan for those positions to be filled at less than the journeyman level. Each pre-employment qualification description shall include all educational, training, and experience requirements which a prospective employee will be required to meet before beginning work. Each training plan shall include a description of all training required to become a journeyman for the target position. These plans shall also include time schedules for the completion of each training element. Offerors shall note that the proposal of less than journeyman-level capability for the project superintendent, foremen, industrial electrician, industrial mechanic, heavy equipment operators, truck operators, maintenance workers, clerk and tractor operators will not be looked upon favorably by the proposal evaluators. In the event you propose to utilize a subcontractor or subcontractors, the same information shall be submitted for all of their on-site personnel who will be involved in the performance of work under this contract. Also, please specify each subcontractor's name on the documents submitted by your firm. *

L.3.7. Instructions for Describing Experience as a Contractor.

Prior experience (as an independent Contractor) in accomplishing the many diverse operations, maintenance and repair activities required by this solicitation shall be demonstrated. These experiences shall not be limited to only the type of work that can be accomplished by the proposed resources specified in this solicitation. A broad experience base is desirable to facilitate work that is beyond the stated resources/capabilities but which may otherwise be required of the Contractor. As with personnel experience, emphasis shall be placed upon prior contractual experience that is the same as or equivalent to that required by this solicitation. The offerors description of prior contractual experience shall include the following information:

- a. A reference to each contract number.
- b. The names, addresses, and telephone numbers of each company, agency, or party for whom the work was performed.
- c. The contract period (beginning and ending dates).
- d. The total earnings under the contract.
- e. The total number of employees used.
- f. A description of the type of work performed. (Offerors may provide copies of the contract technical requirements.)
- g. The name and current telephone number of a contact within the company or agency for whom the work was performed and who is knowledgeable of the offeror's performance.

In the event you propose to utilize a subcontractor or subcontractors who have previous contract experience, separate descriptions should be provided for each. Also, please include the subcontractor's name on these descriptions together with your own.

L.3.8. Budget and Cost Accounting Systems. The Contractor shall institute fully operative cost and budget accounting systems for this contract. Please describe in detail the systems that you are proposing to use. Also, please provide examples of data formats and reports generated from this system which illustrate your capability to meet the requirements of this solicitation.

summary sheet should correspond to the total cost for each contract year as contained in Section B.

L.4.1.11. Part 9. Complete as required. Section K is self-explanatory.

* L.5. Target Work-Start Date. For the purpose of planning and cost computation, offerors shall use the anticipated start date of 1 Jul 2001. Offerors are advised that the actual work-start dates may be later, depending upon developments with the solicitation. *

52.215-1 INSTRUCTIONS TO OFFERORS--COMPETITIVE ACQUISITION (FEB 2000)

(a) Definitions. As used in this provision--

“Discussions” are negotiations that occur after establishment of the competitive range that may, at the Contracting Officer's discretion, result in the offeror being allowed to revise its proposal.

“In writing or written” means any worded or numbered expression which can be read, reproduced, and later communicated, and includes electronically transmitted and stored information.

“Proposal modification” is a change made to a proposal before the solicitation's closing date and time, or made in response to an amendment, or made to correct a mistake at any time before award.

“Proposal revision” is a change to a proposal made after the solicitation closing date, at the request of or as allowed by a Contracting Officer as the result of negotiations.

“Time”, if stated as a number of days, is calculated using calendar days, unless otherwise specified, and will include Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays. However, if the last day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, then the period shall include the next working day.

(b) Amendments to solicitations. If this solicitation is amended, all terms and conditions that are not amended remain unchanged. Offerors shall acknowledge receipt of any amendment to this solicitation by the date and time specified in the amendment(s).

(c) Submission, modification, revision, and withdrawal of proposals. (1) Unless other methods (e.g., electronic commerce or facsimile) are permitted in the solicitation, proposals and modifications to proposals shall be submitted in paper media in sealed envelopes or packages (i) addressed to the office specified in the solicitation, and (ii) showing the time and date specified for receipt, the solicitation number, and the name and address of the offeror. Offerors using commercial carriers should ensure that the proposal is marked on the outermost wrapper with the information in paragraphs (c)(1)(i) and (c)(1)(ii) of this provision.
