

LTC William L. Burruss

Deputy Commander and Deputy District Engineer
Vicksburg District
U.S. Army Corps of Engineers

Lieutenant Colonel Burruss is a 1989 graduate of the U.S. Military Academy, West Point, New York, where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering.

He has also earned a Masters of Science degree in Operations Research from the Georgia Institute of Technology, Atlanta, Georgia. His military education includes the Engineer Officer Basic and Advanced Courses, as well as the Command and General Staff College. He is a Registered Professional Engineer in Missouri.

Lieutenant Colonel Burruss' troop assignments include Platoon Leader, Company Executive Officer, and Battalion Adjutant in the 37th Engineer Battalion (Combat)(Airborne), Fort Bragg, North Carolina; Company Commander of the 84th Engineer Company, 2nd Armored Cavalry Regiment, Fort Polk, Louisiana; Engineer Observer/Controller at JRTC, Fort Polk, Louisiana; and Assistant Division Engineer for the 2nd Infantry Division, Camp Red Cloud, Republic of Korea.

Other assignments include Combat Operations Analyst at the TRADOC Analysis Center and Combat Training Center Analyst at the Center for Army Lessons Learned, both located at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Prior U.S. Army Corps of Engineers assignments include serving as the Deputy District Commander of the Memphis District in Memphis, Tennessee, and Officer in Charge of the 8 RCT Resident Office at Camp Fallujah, Iraq.

Lieutenant Colonel Burruss' decorations include the Bronze Star, Meritorious Service Medal, and Army Commendation Medal. He has also earned the Master Parachutist Badge, Air Assault Badge, and Sapper Tab.

He and his wife have two children.