

US Army Corps of Engineers®

Vicksburg District

Colonel Anthony C. Vesay

Commander and District Engineer
Vicksburg District
U.S. Army Corps of Engineers

Colonel Vesay is a distinguished military graduate of Penn State University and holds master's degrees in civil engineering from PSU and Systems Management from the University of Southern California. His military schooling includes the Engineer Officer Basic and Advanced Courses, the United States Army Command and General Staff College, the Armed Forces Staff College, and the National War College. He is a registered professional engineer in Virginia.

Other assignments include Project Engineer, Norfolk Corps of Engineers; aide-de-camp to Deputy Chief of Engineers; Operations Officer, 249th Engineer Battalion; and Joint Engineer Trainer, U.S. Atlantic Command. He also served in Somalia during Operation Restore Hope.

Other key command and staff positions include Company Commander, 14th Engineer Battalion; Commander, 249th Engineer Battalion; and Staff Officer, Programs Analysis and Evaluation Directorate, Pentagon.

His military awards include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal, the Army Commendation and Achievement Medals, Airborne and Air Assault badges, and Ranger tab.

He and his wife have four children.